to do something positive in a community which had hit hard times. The reason for including the criteria of relief as a cause of PTSD... For example, 80 percent of the women with PTSD also had discomfort.